Re: Acme Cake Co., Inc.
Case No. 08-41965

Dear Judge Craig:

This will confirm that the parties were unable to be available for a conference this afternoon and that, in effect, that conference will be held on the return date of June 16, 2010 at 3:30 p.m., the date of the existing Acme Cake calendar.

Further, this confirms that we have adjournments on consent of all the matters on the calendar (motion and fee applications) for approximately two weeks, subject to the Court's calendar.

Once the actual adjourned date is set, the parties can work out dates for discovery, if any, and for responsive papers.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Respectfully yours,

M. David Graubard
